LOCAL CULINING AND COMMENT.

Mr. H. T. Thompson, Hartford, is very ill.

Next Saturday is the date for the grand Maine Festival at Canbyville.

The late heavy rains have given the notice in Rough creek another good lift.

Notice will be given by the State of the late heavy rains have given the notice in Rough creek another good lift.

Several notices of the most beautiful fishing spots in the State are given in the Herald office on short notice.

The Ovensburg wagon is the best wagon on call. Call on W. T. King.

Complaint of great distress to the wheat crop comes from every section of the country since the continued rains.

Mr. H. P. Taylor brought to our office yesterday, some very good and fine farm near that of this year's growth, that measured 7 feet 7 inches.

The Davis bridge is the best and cheapest. W. T. King is the agent for the bridge. Call on W. T. King.

Everybody buys a coat, everybody wants a coat, and King can sell you the best coat for the least money, call on his stock of huggies, waders, carriages and carts.

D. H. Duncan, who owned and has been operating a steam boat on the river between Rochester and Canbyville for the past year, has sold same and returned to Canbyville.

The Herald makes a specialty of program for entertainments and all other invitations. The later run in price from $1 to $20 per line. Call on our samples.

Top Bell, the night operator of the City, asked Haldy May the side line cart for the last money, call on his stock of huggies, waders, carriages and carts.

Fighting struck and completely altered a barn of Len Bunge's who lives near the Sulphur Springs on 8th st. There were three of his horses under the barn at the time, all of which were knocked down but not seriously hurt.

Joe Pierce, the man who struck J. H. Hobbey, of Central City, with a weight about two months ago, was arrested at McHenry on last Saturday afternoon by W. H. Mundy and brought to Hartford and placed in jail. He was taken to Greenville Sunday and placed in jail there with the charge of assaulting with a deadly weapon his own wife.

There will be a grand Musical Festival at Canbyville, June 30, for the purpose of aiding in completing the Masonic Hall at said place. The names of the parties interested in the same is a sufficient guarantee that it will be a grand affair. The H. B. H. Thompson, of Louisville, Ky., will be the speaker of the day. Exposition rates from Beaver Dam and all points east.

Mr. Wm. Fuller happened to a very painful accident while leaving a piece of machinery at the mill last Wednesday. He accidentally had his hand caught between the cog of some part of the machinery and by jerking his hand out instantly, he sustained the loss of only the first, or index finger. The severed finger and crushed hand was amputated by Drs. Pennington, Baird and Miller.

The entertainment given by the Ladies Aid Society at McHenry on last Thursday evening, was highly entertaining. The entertainment with two exceptions was entirely by the little folks, and consisted of songs, declamations, dialogues, etc. The little people sang their songs, said their speeches and recited their dialogues in a manner that was highly creditable to their little heads. The evening's entertainment closed with recitations by Misses Ella and Maggie Duncan, of Canbyville.
